WATER CLUB

Host Your Next Event at GWC

The Clubhouse can accommodate any occasion with all the essentials for a successful event - flexible space options with spectacular views, exceptional catering, and a professional banquet staff. You'll find a unique greeting area upstairs in the Coxswains Lounge, enjoy the privacy of the enclosed North Porch, or the informality of our outdoor pavilion only steps away from the Mianus River. Expect more from your next event at GWC, where parties are redefined.

Celebrate at GWC

GWC is delighted to showcase the culinary talents and expertise of Executive Chef Todd McGarvey. Chef Todd has been creating elegant affairs for local country clubs, executives, and private parties for 20 years.

Clubhouse Manager Andre Bouchahine will work with you to select an ideal beverage selection and course options from our Catering Menu. He can also offer suggestions on décor and entertainment needs. No matter what the season or the occasion, Greenwich Water Club is the perfect waterfront destination.

Booking Dates

Plan your event during the months of September through May, when you can optimize all three floors of the Clubhouse to build the most memorable event. During June, July and August, private party space is available in the Coxswains Lounge, North Porch, and Pavilion for pool parties. Invite your guests to stay at our Cos Cob Inn.

Andre may be reached at 203-661-4033 ext. 230 or abouchahine@greenwichwaterclub.com.
